

Statement of Mr Tareq Chowdhury

PPC Candidate for Holborn & St Pancras

I am a passionate Labour Party member and I live in Ilford which is 30 minutes away from Holborn and St Pancras Constituency. I am a solicitor and a journalist. I am seeking your support and vote at the selection process of Holborn and St Pancras Labour Parliamentary candidate. At this time of Tory austerity and cut inflicted country we need a strong voice in Holborn and St Pancras who can fight for the cause of local people. I think I can do it on your behalf. I have been a member of the Labour party for more than half a decade and was the Secretary of Little Ilford branch of the East Ham CLP. I am also GC member for Ilford South CLP. I was shortlisted PPC candidate for Romford CLP, Epping Forest CLP and Croydon South CLP.

I was born in Bangladesh and migrated to UK after the completion of my graduation. I was called to the Bar from the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn in 2004. I set up my own practice in 2004. It is now a solicitors firm called 'Kingdom Solicitors'. I have also been running a bilingual newspaper called Weekly Bangla Post since 2004 and work as an Editor. I also write for various newspapers when I can find spare time to write.

I have achieved a lot following my migration to UK from Bangladesh. I came from a middle class Bangladeshi family. My school teacher father had taught me how to fight. I came to this country with only £79 and I made this country my home. Within seven years of my arrival, I opened my own law firm on completion of legal qualification.

I am a fighter. As a solicitor and an advocate, I fight for my clients' day in day out. I fight for people's cause. I have experience and the ability to win a fight. I strongly believe that I can fight for the cause of labour party and for the cause of local issues. If I am selected, I will make a difference for the people of Holborn & St Pancras.

As a lawyer, I fight for people's rights on a daily basis. As a prospective candidate, I hope to champion people's cause and make a difference in people's lives. Please support me and vote for me to be elected as Labour PPC for Holborn & St Pancras.
